2 BACKGROUND

The Ministry of Drinking Water & Sanitation (MDWS) administers the National Rural Drinking Water Programme (NRDWP), through which the Government of India provides financial and technical support to supplement the efforts of States to provide adequate potable drinking water to the rural population.

With the coming into effect of the National Rural Drinking Water Programme (NRDWP), there has been a shift in focus from mere coverage of habitations to drinking water security at household level and a shift from a supply driven approach to a demand-managed approach. The Total Sanitation Campaign (TSC) aims at ensuring total sanitation coverage by motivating village communities and the Gram Panchayat to lead the campaign and make their village open-defecation free. In ensuring adequate safe drinking water and sanitation to all households in rural areas on a long-term basis, Gram Panchayats and their Standing committee, viz. Village Water & Sanitation Committees (VWSCs) and Gram Sabhas have to play a critical role. NRDWP also aims at fully empowered, aware and skilled Gram Panchayats capable of planning, implementation, operation, maintenance and management of water supply at village levels.

In order to ensure that GPs/ VWSCs develop understanding of the rural drinking water supply and sanitation programmes, and are empowered to shoulder their responsibilities, they need to be provided with continuous support in terms of creating awareness, training and handholding on various aspects of drinking water supply and sanitation. Communication and Capacity Building Unit (CCDU) is part of the Water and Sanitation Support Organization (WSSO). CCDU has been designed for promoting initiatives in Water Supply and Sanitation Sector.

2.1 CCDU Objectives:

- Create awareness among rural people on all aspects of Rural Water Supply and Sanitation to enhance capacity of PRIs/ local bodies to take up planning, information, operation and maintenance activities.
- Capacity building of local community to operate and maintenance water supply systems.
- Develop State specific information, Education and Communication strategy for reform initiatives in Water and Sanitation.
- Provide capacity development of functionaries at all levels. Address the need of sustainability in Water and Sanitation.
- New technologies that may be taken up under Rural Water schemes and Total Sanitation Campaign.
- Need for advocacy on conventional and traditional water conservation and rain water harvesting.

2.2 Drinking water and sanitation programme in Andhra Pradesh State

In Andhra Pradesh State, Rural Water Supply and Sanitation Dept (PR wing) is responsible for providing/ implementing Rural Drinking Water Supply and Sanitation programmes in Rural areas (Gram Panchayats/ Villages), Mandals & Zilla Parishads (Districts).

At Government level this Dept is administered by the Principal Secretary / Secretary to Govt., RWSS Dept. There is one exclusive Engineer-In-Chief (Technical Head), who is responsible for implementation of Drinking Water and Sanitation Schemes in all 22 Districts in the State. He is supported by 6 Chief Engineers, Joint Director, CARD, Sr. Geologist, Chemist, NTPAs with supporting Ministerial and Technical staff to look after normal Rural Water Schemes (NRDWP) and special projects like External Aided (World Bank), NABARD(Thirteenth Finance Commission), Sanitation, Administration, Support Activities (HRD and IEC) etc.

In each District there is one Superintending Engineer (22 Nos) to look after implementation of Rural Drinking Water & Sanitation Schemes supported by field Engineers like Executive Engineers (52 Nos), Dy. Executive Engineers (305 Nos) and AEs/ AEEs at Mandal level (1320), who are responsible for project formulation, implementation and maintenance of water & Sanitation Schemes. They are supported by other field and ministerial staff like Chemist, Asst. Chemist, Water Analyst, Sr/ Jr Geologist, Superintendents, Sr/ Jr Assistant, Jr. Technical Officers, District Support Unit (DSU)/ District Resource Persons (DRPs), Mandal Resource Persons (MRPs)/ Mandal Coordinators (MCs), work charged etc for implementation of Water and Sanitation Programmes.

There are District Water Sanitation Missions (DWSMs) and District Water Sanitation Committees (DWSCs) supported by the DSUs (68 Nos), which will look after social mobilization activities/ IEC activities/ trainings to varies stake holders in the districts to bring involvement communities and PRIs in Water & Sanitation sector. The main objective is to bring behavioral change in the mind set of people/ community. The above units will function under Administrative control of SEs. At Mandal level there are Mandal Coordinators @ one coordinator for each Mandal to support the trainings, IEC activities and to create awareness to PRIs and communities.

Both Water Supply and Sanitation Schemes are mainly funded by GOI through Dept of Drinking Water Supply (DoDWS, Ministry of Rural Development), with matching share from State Govt., Gram Panchayats/ Communities as per guidelines by GOI (DoDWS).

Some of the special projects are funded by External Aided (World Bank), Nabard, Hudco, Thirteenth Finance Commission funds etc.

Habitation is the unit for providing drinking water facilities and Gram Panchayat (GP) is the unit for sanitation programme.

Rural Water Supply is being implemented thorough various infrastructure created from time to time, i.e. hand pumps to bore wells, PWS Schemes, CPWS Schemes, Details are as follows:

Hand pumps to bore wells	3,35,895
1 1	, ,
PWSS (Single village scheme)	53,215
CPWSS (Multi village scheme)	521
Drinking Water Supply to Schools	63,759
Water Testing Laboratories (HQ-1, Div-51, SD-27)	79

The Government would be providing drinking water facility to all the people in rural areas at 40 lts percapita per day through any of the scheme as indicated above (Hand pumps/PWS/CPWSS schemes).

2.3 Status of Habitations as on 01-04-2011

Fully covered Habitations (FC) (40 lpcd supply)	38,575
Partially covered Habitations (PC) 10-39 lpcd supply)	33,023
Not covered Habitation (NC) (Below 10 lpcd supply)	155
Quality affected Habitations (QA)	654
Fluoride affected (above 1.5 ppm)	505
Brackish/ salinity	149
Total	72,407

2.4 Constituencies, Mandals, Gram Panchayats, Habitations and Population

No. of Districts	22
No. of Assembly Constituencies	294
No. of Mandals	1,099
No. of Gram Panchayats	21,738
No. of Habitations	72,387
Rural population (2001 censes)	5.59

According to latest guidelines by GOI the National Policy is "to provide every rural person with adequate water for drinking, cooking and other domestic basic needs on a sustainable basis. This basic requirement should meet certain minimum water quality standards and be readily and conveniently accessible at all times and in all situations".

For all the completed individual water supply schemes in villages/ GPs, the GPs are responsible for operational maintenance of schemes. They can meet the maintenance cost from taxes collected by the Panchayats and maintenance grants from Government, percapita grant, twelfth finance commission grants mineral cess, etc released to GPs.

The Mandal Parishads are responsible for maintenance of Hand pumps in the Mandal area from out of grants provided by the Government.

The Zilla Parishads are responsible for maintenance of CPWS Schemes covering more than one village with the support of RWS&S. Government would be releasing necessary funds for maintenance of CPWS Schemes every year.

In all schools and anganwadi centres, proper drinking water and sanitation facilities are to be provided on priority basis and before March 2012, as per policy of GOI.

2.5 Reform projects (drinking water):

To bring community participation and involvement reforms were initiated in implementation of rural drinking water schemes by GOI through sector reform projects in 7 districts in Andhra Pradesh State as a pilot project from 2009-10 onwards (East Godavari, Guntur, Prakasham, Nellore, Chittoor, Nalgonda & Khammam Districts). Subsequently 25-12-2002 onwards the above reforms were extended in all 22 districts as Swajaladhara Schemes with similar norms of sector reform projects. The important aspects are to contribute community contribution not less than 10% on capital cost of the scheme and to take up maintenance of the schemes from GP funds duly forming habitation/ village water and sanitation committee (VWSC).

About 5700 habitations and 2800 schools were provided with water supply schemes with an expenditure of Rs. 400 crores including community contribution under reform projects.

2.6 Reform projects (TSC):

GOI have sanctioned TSC Projects for all the 22 Districts in Andhra Pradesh State from 1999-2000 onwards in a phased manner. The main objective of TSC is to improve general quality of life in rural areas by improving the health conditions of rural population. The concept of sanitation includes school sanitation and hygiene education to school children, personal hygiene, home sanitation, safe water, garbage disposal, excreta disposal and waste water disposal. All the above components will help to improve environmental sanitation in rural areas and reduce incidence of water born diseases. The programme gives emphasis on creating awareness through intensive Information Education Communication (IEC) to bring about attitudinal and behavioural change for relevant hygiene practices of rural population and school children.

But the results in TSC are not encouraging. Through the sanitation coverage is about 58% in AP State, the use of toilet is ranging from 30-35% of toilets built.

The coverage of toilets is as follows:

India (National) - 53% Andhra Pradesh - 58%

Still Open Defecation continues in about 80% by rural population, inspite of 58% coverage of toilets.

Open Defecation in public places like road margins, near kuntas (tanks), streams, canal margins, agriculture fields and other public places around the villages is still prevailing. Women & girl children are main sufferers due to lack of toilets in houses. This is effecting the health of rural population severely.

2.7 Nirmal Gram Purasker Awards by GOI

To add vigour to TSC implementation, GOI have launched an award scheme called NGP for fully sanitized and Open Defecation Free (ODF) GPs, Blocks/Mandals and Districts.

The achievement of NGP in Gram Panchayats in Andhra Pradesh is 1,274 GPs upto 2011 (from 2006 to 2011) against total 21,738 GPs i.e. 6%, Only one Mandal in Khammam District has achieved NGP status so far and none of the District reached 100% sanitation.

The main reason for this is due to non involvement and participation of communities and PRIs to bring behaviour change in the people's mindset.

2.8 National Rural Drinking Water Quality Monitoring & Surveillance Program (NRDWQM&S)

Government of India, launched the National Rural Drinking Water Quality Monitoring & Surveillance programme (NRDWQM&S) during the year 2005-06 to build the capacity of Gram Panchayats, to own the water quality field kits and to take up the full operation & maintenance responsibility of the water quality monitoring of all the drinking water sources in their respective rural areas.

The main activities involved in the NRDWQM&S are:

- HRD activities
- IEC activities
- o Distribution of water testing field kits (both chemical & bacteriological)
- Water Quality Monitoring & Sanitary survey
- Data processing
